

K-LOVE radio station is cherished to my family and serves our community well. The effect on the local community would be frustration if it were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. K-LOVE's service and clear reception on air is important to lift people's spirits and calm their souls, whether driving or at home.